Be Quiet System Power 10 750W reliable? : r/buildapc

The PSU isn't particularly high quality but it does at least list over power protections on the product page, which means it should automatically shut off if it goes over 450W. A 3060 and 5600X won't draw more than 400, so unless you have a bunch of hard drives, LEDs and fans it's unlikely you'll ever even see 400W.
