What is a hybrid inverter?
Hybrid inverters are essentially two inverters in one; they combine a solar inverter and a battery inverter into one simple unit. These advanced inverters use solar energy to power your home, charge a battery or send excess energy into the electricity grid. Most hybrid inverters can also provide emergency backup power during a blackout.

Do solar panels need a hybrid inverter?

Without a hybrid inverter, you'll need a battery inverter to exchange power with a battery. Choosing a hybrid inverter means that if your solar panels generate more power than you use, the excess energy can be stored in a battery for use later or exported to the utility grid.

What is a grid hybrid solar power inverter?

In grid-connected mode, the grid hybrid solar power inverter prioritizes solar power utilization. It effectively stores excess energy in the battery while allowing for grid import during periods of insufficient solar generation.

Is a hybrid inverter a good choice?

Although a hybrid inverter may have a higher upfront cost and require a compatible battery system, they're a versatile choice for many domestic setups. Get a Quote on Your Solar Panels Installation in 60 Seconds The average home can save £1,190 every year with solar panels!.
