Overview

How to feng shui in a balcony?

Avoid overcrowding in the balcony is very important for good Feng Shui. As the terrace symbolises the vision of business or career, this should be from unwanted materials. Avoid hanging undergarments/clothes, old shoe racks, dead plants, newspapers, and empty pots or vases. The balcony should be bright always.

How to avoid a head-on confrontation in feng shui?

To prevent head-on confrontations in Feng Shui for your balcony, you can hang a curtain if your balcony is facing the evil spirits directly and it is impossible to enclose the balcony or move away the evil spirits. Ensure that the balcony is ventilated frequently.

What should you not put on a feng shui balcony?

Here are some items to avoid having on your Feng Shui balcony. Their presence can disrupt the process of positivity and create hindrances in the flow of the right levels of energy. Avoid keeping dead plants on your balcony. If your plants die or have decaying leaves, remove them immediately. Do not place empty cartons or pots on your balcony.

Can you hang clothes on a balcony Feng Shui?

Remember that clutter and mess will harm your balcony feng shui. In addition, it is also best to avoid hanging clothes on balconies for good energy flow. However, it can be a potential problem for people who live in a small apartment or condo with limited space constraints.

Should a front door be facing a balcony in feng shui?

It is a taboo in Feng Shui to have your front door facing the balcony, because it is adverse to family privacy, cannot accumulate fortune and goes against your family fortune. If your front door is facing the balcony directly, you can hang a curtain, build a partition wall or put a fish tank, potted plant or vine to solve the problem. 2.

Why is a hollowed-out balcony so popular in feng shui?

At present, the hollowed-out balcony is quite popular for the sake of ventilation, lighting and European style. In fact, the design, same with floor-to-ceiling window, is a taboo in Feng Shui as it makes the space below hollow, which will lead to money losses and limited family number.
