

Cell solar system buster

Overview

Is Cell a solar system Buster?

I think Cell is a Solar System buster, but the Buuhan universe destroying thing is bollocks. Even if the DBZ universe isn't infinite, it is far too vast for simply one technique to utterly destroy it.

Did a universe buster really blow away Earth and the Solar System?

If you still consider that Universe Buster then sure. Interesting question nonetheless. There really is not a definitive answer, but it was stated within the manga that Cell gathered enough ki energy to blow away Earth and the solar system. Here is an image from in which Cell states that with an actual word-by-word translation:.

What is a cell Buster?

Corrections has been breaking the law by gassing prisoners in their cells with a potent pepper spray called the Cell Buster, a High Court judge has ruled. The Cell Buster, made by American company Sabre and marketed under the tagline Making Grown Men Cry Since 1975, involves hosing pepper spray into a closed cell to incapacitate the inmate.

Can Super Perfect Cell destroy the Solar System?

Over on the Kanzenshuu forum someone wrote a pretty decent answer to the post which ends with the following: So, for Cell to be able to destroy the Solar system, assuming that a linear chi-power destruction progression is in play, you'd have to believe that Super Perfect cell is 28-29 times stronger than Namek arc Goku.

Can cell destroy a solar system?

That would be Akira Toriyama wrote that Cell can destroy the universe, so it is likely he can. From a perspective from inside the universe, this is likely not the case. While it is plausible that someone could destroy a solar system, Cell likely cannot. Since when has anyone destroyed a solar system?

If Super Perfect Cell is the weakest Solar System Buster

You're still just a Solar System Buster, as that kind of power won't reach the nearest Star as far as pure destructive energy is concerned. I mean you could argue Goku could generate an attack that could fire off a few targeted beams to different Stars at once and take out multiple Solar Systems via those Stars Supernova combined with the energy from the attack.

Something interesting I found about Cell's solar-system statement

So I'm sure most people here are aware of Cell's claim in Dragon Ball Z that his Kamehameha would destroy the solar system. That one statement had led to years of debate and data book ...
