How much do Duracell batteries cost at Costco?

At $17.99 for 48 batteries, that's a deal well worth taking, especially compared to Costco's $17.99 for 40 Duracell batteries. Of course, if you aren't a Costco member, you won't be getting these same prices buying them at other retailers.

How much does a Kirkland battery cost?

Kirkland Signature only offers the two most common battery types, Alkaline AA and AAA, and both types come in packs of 48 batteries for $17.99 apiece.
