Overview

How long does a locker last?

Maximum storage time is usually 3-4 days. After this limit, the management company will open the locker and confiscate your items, holding them for up to a month. You'll need to pay both the regular locker fees plus a separate storage charge to get your belongings back. Prohibited items in lockers include:.

Where should a locker be located in a house?

While keeping the locker, always keep in mind that the locker should be located on the southern wall of the house so that whenever its door is opened, it should open towards the north. The north direction is considered to be the direction of Kubera and Mata Lakshmi.

What happens if the lockers are not full?

If the lockers are not full, then I would imagine it sits there until you pick it up, or until the next Amazon 'refill' employee decides that your 'old' item is not being picked up and therefore they send it back so that they have room for others.

How many doors should a locker have?

According to Vastu Shastra, the locker should always be kept at least one inch ahead of the wall except in the southeast and southwest corners. The room where the locker is kept should have only one entrance. Apart from this, the main door in this room should be made of two doors.

Is keeping a locker in the west a good idea?

If so, then money will never stay with you for long. According to Vastu, keeping the locker in the west direction is also considered very auspicious. If you always keep it on the west side so that it faces east while playing, then it is very good for monetary gain.
