Overview

The Photovoltaic Specialists Conference (also called PVSC) is the longest running technical conference dedicated to , , and . The first PVSC was in 1961 at the headquarters in Washington DC. The number of conference areas have expanded and now include PV reliability and solar resource. The conference has also had many diverse and distinguis.

What is the IEEE photovoltaic specialists Conference?

The IEEE Photovoltaic Specialists Conference (also called PVSC) is the longest running technical conference dedicated to photovoltaics, solar cells, and solar power. The first PVSC was in 1961 at the NASA headquarters in Washington DC. The number of conference areas have expanded and now include PV reliability and solar resource.

What is IEEE PVSC 52?

Registration here IEEE PVSC 52 This year's IEEE (Institute of Electrical and Electronics Engineers) Photovoltaic Specialists Conference is the 52th gathering of the premier scientific and technical conference focused on all areas of photovoltaics.

What's happening at the 52nd IEEE photovoltaic specialists Conference?

At the 52nd IEEE Photovoltaic Specialists Conference we will be addressing these advances and challenges by offering a diverse technical program divided into eleven areas covering the breadth and depth of PV science, manufacturing, reliability, deployment, policy and sustainability.

Evaluation of radiation tolerance of perovskite solar

Perovskite solar cells are a candidate for use as space solar cells, and their radiation response is studied here for the first time. Perovskite solar cells are fabricated on a quartz substrate to prevent substrate degradation, which might otherwise affect the evaluation of radiation tolerance of the cells. As a result, superior radiation tolerance of perovskite solar cells ...
