Overview

What is the lethal company subreddit?

Welcome to the Lethal Company subreddit! We're a community centered around the popular horror co-op game, Lethal Company! Has anyone noticed that the Bracken doesn't seem to be as skittish as he used to be?

Before, you would look at him, and he would scuttle off into another area and then eventually start a hunt phase again.

Can you play lethal company solo?

Perhaps one of our best tips for solo players in Lethal Company is the mantra "Pack light, don't fight". Combat in the game is possible, but weapons are hard to come by and when you're on your own it's a massive liability, the same goes for encumbrance. The slower you are, the easier you are for creatures to catch.

Is lethal company a co-op horror game?

If you're looking for a place to learn everything about Lethal Company, look no further than this article! By subscribing, you agree to our Privacy Policy and may receive occasional deal communications; you can unsubscribe anytime. Lethal Company may be a co-op horror game. But you'll still end up alone a lot of the time.

What is the most deadly thing in lethal company?

When you're sprinting around by yourself, seeing everything you possibly can is incredibly important. There's already a lot of things in Lethal Company that can kill you but by far the most deadly thing to a solo player is a storm. Lightning bolts come out of nowhere and they're an instant kill if you're carrying anything metal.

Should you play lethal company with mods?

Whilst Lethal Company purists might get a little tetchy about it, playing with Mods is a good way to make your solo experience more fun, smoother, and a little less stressful. The game is brutal enough on its own, but you can sand down some of those rough edges with mods.

Should you play lethal company with others?

Though it sounds counter-productive, a glance at any part of the Lethal Company Community will show you that the majority of experienced players will recommend playing with others. Lethal Company is meant to be unfair and it's meant to be played with multiple people.

I don't understand the Bracken. This things AI is really bad

A lot of little things are changed depending on whether you're playing solo or in a team. For example, the Snare Flea is unable to kill you the first time when solo, it'll take you to critical health and then stops. (If it manages to get on you again, it will kill you) Another example is the fact that the Bracken will become enraged from staring if you're playing in a team, but this will never
