

Residential ESS cost breakdown in Oman 2025

Overview

How much money does Oman have in 2025?

Oman's 2025 budget estimates total revenues at OMR 11.18 billion which is 1.5% more compared to the budgeted revenues in 2024. Oil and gas revenues comprise 68% of this figure at OMR 7.607 billion, and the remaining OMR 3.573 billion is estimated from non-oil and gas revenues. Oil price assumed at $60 per barrel.

Will Oman have a fiscal deficit in 2025?

Oman is projecting a fiscal deficit of OMR 0.62 billion in 2025, down by 3% on year-on-year budgeting, as growth in state spending is outpaced by a stronger growth in revenues on the back of projected higher gas receipts. This is despite a 1.4 percent decrease in oil revenue compared to last year budgeted revenue.

What are Oman's projected revenue figures?

Oman's projected revenue figures are based on an assumed oil price of $60 per barrel which is consistent from an expectation of $60 per barrel in the 2024 budget.

What are the sources of non-oil and gas revenues in Oman?

Dividends from Oman Investment Authority (OIA) continue to be another significant source of non-oil and gas revenues (OMR 800 million) for the government.

Did Oman ratify the double tax avoidance agreement with Ireland?

Oman and Ireland's Ratification of the Double Tax Avoidance Agreement with Ireland (DTAA) - A Royal Decree (RD 60/2024) was issued in November 2024 by His Majesty the Sultan of Oman, ratifying the DTT between Oman and Ireland. The DTT was ratified in Ireland in September 2024
