

Solar power midsommar

Overview

Lorde and Joel Kefali directed the music video for "Solar Power", which has drawn comparisons to the 2019 folk horror film Midsommar. The song was translated into the Māori language by Hēmi Kelly, and was performed and released by Lorde as "Te Ao Mārama / Solar Power", the second track from her EP Te Ao Mārama.

"Solar Power" is a song by New Zealand singer-songwriter Lorde for her album Solar Power. The song was written and produced by Lorde and Joel Kefali and was released on 11 June 2021 by Geffen Records.

The cover image was photographed by Lorde's friend Ophelia, showing Lorde's face. The cover art was released on Lorde's official website and the official Instagram account of her.

The music video for "Solar Power" was released on 11 June 2021, directed by Lorde and Joel Kefali, which "posits Lorde almost as the leader of a happy-go-lucky, hippie solstice cult — almost a benign, [] version of Midsommar". Stewart Sowman-Lund of Rolling Stone wrote that the video is "a love letter to the summer months".

Lorde wrote the song while visiting her friend on the coast of Maui. She wrote the song on a guitar and later brought the lyrics to Kefali.

"Solar Power" has been described as a guitar-led, indie pop, and folk song. Lorde wrote and produced "Solar Power" with Jack Antonoff, with whom she has collaborated on previous albums.

Writing for Rolling Stone, Anna Gaca called the song a "soft-touch anthem for the [summer] season's simple pleasures", and remarked that it "flipped".
