

Solar with battery supplier quotation in Hungary 2030

Overview

What are Hungarian goals for solar energy?

The Hungarian government has set ambitious goals for the expansion of solar energy in the coming years. By 2030, the country's total capacity is expected to rise to 12 GW, doubling the current capacity. This target is an important step towards achieving the country's climate goals while diversifying the energy market.

How big is the solar industry in Hungary in 2023?

At the end of 2023, the installed PV capacity in Hungary was around 5.6 GW, after around 1.6 GW was added in 2023. Compared to 2022, this addition represented an increase of approximately 45%. Given such figures, it is not surprising that the Hungarian solar industry is optimistic about the future.

How much solar power does Hungary have in 2024?

As of early November 2024, the country has achieved an impressive total solar capacity of over 5,500 megawatts (MW), underscoring the importance of solar energy for Hungary's energy future.

How has Hungary progressed in the development of solar energy?

Hungary has made significant progress in the expansion of solar energy in recent years, both in the area of private solar installations and in the construction of large industrial solar power plants.

How much solar power does Hungary have?

“The numbers speak for themselves”: Hungary will have achieved a total solar capacity of over 5,500 megawatts (MW) by the beginning of November 2024, with this capacity being made up of two main areas. Around 3,300 MW are accounted for by industrial solar power plants, which are used for large-scale energy supply.

What are the challenges facing solar energy in Hungary?

Despite the dynamic growth, there are some challenges in Hungary that could make the further expansion of solar energy difficult. One of the biggest hurdles is network capacity. Network bottlenecks and limited connection options mean that many planned large-scale projects cannot currently be connected.
