Who is Vivint?

Vivint is a leading smart home service provider and the largest tech employer in Utah, with a team of 10,000+ helping families and individuals protect their homes. Want to work with us?

Do the right thing. A relentless passion to serve the customer. Today's innovation is tomorrow's lifeblood. Individuals win games; teams win championships.

How does Vivint Home Energy work?

Vivint also offers a 25-year production guarantee, which ensures your system produces a specific amount of energy during that time. The Vivint Home Energy app also tracks your energy production and consumption, which helps you better understand how it's working and when your system generates peak energy.

How do I pay for a Vivint Solar energy system?

There are a few tax incentives available, such as the federal solar tax credit, to help cover some of the costs of going solar. Your city and state might also offer incentives; a Vivint representative can help you determine if any are available. You can pay for a Vivint solar energy system with a solar loan, solar lease or cash purchase.
